Case #: N/A

Contact: Traffic Sergeant Eric Munson, Plainfield Police, 815-267-7238

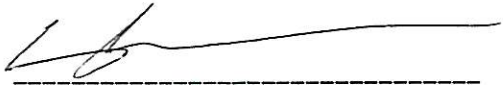

Plainfield IL – The Plainfield Police Department remains dedicated to reducing injury related and fatal traffic crashes. One of the best ways to do this is by aggressively enforcing occupant restraint laws. In fact, injury crashes in the Village of Plainfield went down 18 percent in 2009 as compared to 2008.

The State of Illinois has set a goal of reaching a 93 percent seat belt usage rate within the state. A study conducted by the Plainfield Police Department in November of 2009 revealed a 93.6 percent seat belt usage rate within the Village of Plainfield, which marks the first time a seat belt study conducted within the Village of Plainfield has exceeded the goal set by the State of Illinois.

In order to maintain the seat belt usage rate within the Village of Plainfield, the Plainfield Police Department will conduct numerous "Click it or Ticket" campaigns throughout the year, in addition to participating in state and national campaigns.

The first campaign conducted by the Plainfield Police Department will be "Operation Buckle Up for Love" which shall run from February 8th through February 14th, in conjunction with Valentine's Day. Plainfield Police Officers will focus a large amount of their efforts on occupant restraint violations, and will take a "zero tolerance" approach.

Plainfield Police Officers will conduct enforcement both from their vehicles and on foot at various locations throughout the Village, and anyone stopped for failing to buckle up can expect a citation.
